JEF can appoint 10 members of the FC

CONGRESS DELEGATES

Art. 13

1. The delegates shall be elected democratically by and from amongst the members of the Association in the local or in their absence by the regional or in their absence by the national constituent organisations in accordance with procedures determined in each country as well as by the Groupe Europe.

2. The total number of delegates shall be fixed at 160 unless the Federal Committee decides otherwise.

3. Irrespective of the procedure for their election two delegates shall be allocated to each National Section and to Groupe Europe. The remaining delegates shall be allocated to the National Sections on the basis of the average membership fees paid by each section in the two years preceding the Congress.

4. The number of JEF delegates in the Congress of the U.E.F. equals an additional proportion of 10 % to the number of delegates elected by the constituent organisations of the U.E.F. Among these, one delegate should come from each

FEDERAL COMMITTEE DELEGATES

Art. 17

1. One half of the membership of the Federal Committee shall be elected directly by the Congress from amongst U.E.F. members.

2. The remaining half shall be elected by the National Sections and the Groupe Europe before or during the Congress, according to the rules laid down by each of them. Each National Section as well as the Groupe Europe shall elect three members, with the following exceptions:

- Organizations having paid membership fees in the two years preceding the Congress exceeding 1.000 members shall elect a supplementary member for every further 1000 members or fraction therefore;
- Organizations having paid less than 200 membership fees in the two years preceding the Congress shall elect two members.

3. JEF can appoint 10 members of the Federal Committee. In addition JEF can nominate candidates for the directly elected members of Federal Committee by the U.E.F. Congress according to Para 1.
