

PROPOSAL FOR A RESOLUTION [0.1] OF THE UEF FEDERAL COMMITTEE ON THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT ELECTIONS IN 2019

Presented by Paolo Vacca (based on the results of the PC1 meeting in January 2018)

1 The UEF Federal Committee, meeting in Berlin on 22 April 2018,

2 Considering

- 3 1. that the elections of the European Parliament in May 2019 will represent a moment of great
4 importance for the debate on the future of Europe and a crucial opportunity to promote the 5 case for a federal Europe with citizens, political parties and candidates;
- 6 2. a campaign by the federalist organizations is essential to influence the positions of political 7 parties on the future of Europe and the way they will promote the European project during 8 the electoral campaign;
- 9 3. grassroots activities by the federalist organizations during the electoral campaign are 10 essential to ensure that the option of a democratic, united and federal Europe is visible to 11 citizens and candidates at a time when Europe is squeezed between anti-Europeans and 12 defenders of the status quo;
- 13 4. activities with candidates from all political parties during the electoral campaign, including 14 challenging them to present bold proposals for the future of Europe, can lay the ground for 15 stronger federalist activities in the next European Parliament.

16 Resolves

- 17 5. to engage in a campaign for the elections of the European Parliament in May 2019
18 articulated in the following phases/pillars and with the following objectives and main
19 activities

20 Phase 1 – Elections preparation

21 Duration: April 2018 – November 2018

22 Objectives: (1) ensure that the European political parties continue the system of the 23 Spitzenkandidaten and nominate their candidate for the position of European Commission
24 President in advance of the elections, (2) ensure that the European political parties prepare
25 to run a pan-European campaign focused on European issues; and (3) influence the political
26 platforms of political parties at European and national level to include federalist demands
27 and objectives, in particular on Eurozone reform, EU treaty reforms and the challenges of 28 security and growth.

29 Activities: (1) prepare a set of key requests that the federalists would like to see in the 30 platforms of the European political parties (based on recent UEF and JEF resolutions and 31 positions); (2) activate UEF and JEF members active in political parties to advance federalist
32 demands in respective parties' platforms and activities; (3) organise private and public
33 meetings with European political parties to discuss and promote federalist proposals, (4)
34 participate in European congresses of the European political parties, (5) seek support of a 35 broader network of NGOs (including the network created around March for Europe) to 36 amplify federalist demands.

37 Phase 2 – Elections run up

38 Duration: December 2018 – March 2018

39 Objectives: (1) promote federalist positions in the debate leading to the European elections,
40 (2) influence the narrative of the European political parties in the electoral campaign.

41 Activities: (a) meeting with each of the Spitzenkandidaten; (b) meeting with party campaign
42 managers; (c) debates with political parties representatives on key points of their political 43 programmes; and (d) use of social media to promote federalist subjects and proposals.

44 Phase 3: Towards the vote

45 Duration: April 2019-May 2019

46 Objectives: (1) obtain commitments by candidates from all political parties to a federalist
47 pledge, (2) promote federalist positions and attack anti-federalist positions by candidates
48 and political parties at European and national level, (3) promote cross-partisan debates with 49 candidates to promote federalist demands; (4) promote the case of a federal Europe with 50 citizens at large; and (5) invite citizens to support candidates across parties that support
51 federalist demands.

52 Activities: (1) contact individual candidates at European, national and local level asking 53 support to a federalist list of demands, (2) communication activities (including a website 54 and social media) to promote federalist positions and attack anti-federalist positions by 55 candidates and political parties at European and national level.

56 Final event: Strasbourg July 2019

57 Organise a final event in Strasbourg, on the occasion of the opening session of the new 58 European Parliament, and on the 40th anniversary of the first direct European election,
59 inviting all elected candidates who have signed the federalist pledge, if possible with a 60 related public action, using also the network of partners around March for Europe.

- 61 6. to constitute a taskforce in charge of running UEF campaign activities for the European 62 elections, supporting the European Secretariat and the Bureau;
- 63 7. invites members of the Federal Committee to join such taskforce;
- 64 8. invites each national section to appoint one national focal point for the European taskforce
65 to ensure engagement of national sections with the European proposals and activities;
- 66 9. proposes to the Young European Federalists that the UEF taskforce and the JEF taskforce 67 work as a coordinated team for a series of joint activities to be defined;
- 68 10. encourages national sections to participate in the activities organized by the European level
69 and organize similar activities at national level.
